Projects

Melanoma Skin Cancer Detection|Matlab
Developed a medical image analysis system to detect melanoma from dermoscopic images using Otsu's thresholding and morphological operations for accurate lesion segmentation. Extracted ABCD features (Asymmetry, Border, Color, Diameter) and classified lesions as benign or malignant with approximately 90% accuracy while maintaining low computational complexity.

Day Scholar In-Out Time Management System | HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Node.js, Express, MySQL
Built a web-based system to manage student registration, login, and daily in-out entry records. Implemented frontend validation using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, and integrated Node.js with MySQL for secure data storage, authentication, and efficient retrieval of student entry logs.

SimpLearn Compiler | Compiler Design
Designed a basic compiler prototype to demonstrate core compiler design concepts. Implemented support for variable declarations, conditional statements, and loops while showcasing fundamental phases such as lexical analysis, parsing, and simple execution logic.

Inventory Management Optimization System | Python, Streamlit
Developed an Operations Research–based inventory management system implementing EOQ, Reorder Point, Safety Stock, and Bulk Discount models to optimize inventory decisions and minimize total cost. Built an interactive Streamlit interface and a custom Python library to perform calculations and visualize optimal ordering strategies.
